ABOUT ME

Sthembile Sphiwe Sithole, I am 19 years of age, a Business Information Technology student at the University of Johannesburg. I am currently doing my second year. I enjoy solving problems through design and making websites that are both functional and beautiful. I'm always learning, growing, and ready to take on new challenges that help me level up as a designer and developer.

Beyond technology, I am a friendly, reliable, and hardworking individual with a strong interest in customer service. I work well under pressure, enjoy meeting new people, and adapt quickly to different environments. I am seeking a part time job where I can bring my communication skills, positive attitude, and dedication to excellent service.

EXPERIENCE

No formal work experience yet.

I am currently seeking my first job opportunity. I am eager to apply my strong communication skills, teamwork, and reliability in a practical work environment.
